

Saint James Day 2015 – The grounds started pulling together around 9 a.m., preparing for our first Outdoors Mass. The Mass was celebrated under the tent, by Father Peter Omogo and Deacon Greg Anderson.

Mass ended and the food was rolled out for all present to enjoy. There was chicken bbq, chips, hotdogs, and much, much more for all to enjoy. The weather was sunny, warm with a light breeze in the air. Such a nice day it was.

The smiles and joys of the young at heart were witnessed as the blown up slides arrived and were used by many. They laughed, they shouted with joy and they repeatedly challenged the obstacle course...

Then suddenly from nowhere that familiar sound and rumble of our faithful iron horse rolled through the field snaking to the left and then to the right, navigating around the blow up and the tent. So much joy and laughter in the faces of its riders as they passed us by...

Then as it started, it came to an end. The memories are there and will last forever. Those conversations, those smiles of joy. It was so nice to see happiness in the air...
